

CONSERVATION FOR THE BOTTOM LINE

Keynote Speaker: Jerry Doan

WALSH COUNTY LAND & WATER WORKSHOP

“Conservation for the Bottom Line” is a workshop designed to bring the latest information on how conservation practices can benefit landowners in Walsh County.

We will have updates from Game and Fish, Red River Riparian Project, Homme Dam Watershed Project, NRCS and others!

RSVP is appreciated, but is not required.

Contact: Sarah Johnston
Walsh County Three Rivers
Soil Conservation District

(701) 284-7363

walshcounty319@polarcomm.com

February 22

9:00 am – 2:00 pm

Park River City Auditorium

Lunch will be served

Special Guests:

Jerry Doan- Black Leg Ranch,
2016 Aldo Leopold award winner in conservation from Sterling, ND.

North Dakota Game and Fish Department
–A review of programs available to landowners

Cover Crops by Justin Zahradka

NDSU Extension, Brad Brummond:
Cropland conversion
Manure Management